

Does Sentinel provide information about the market conditions?

Yes. Chief Investment Officer Matt McPhail, CFA, AIF and his team publish a quarterly update with current developments in today's economy as well as their thoughts on future market conditions. The update also details how these trends affect the mutual funds held in Sentinel's portfolios and any changes made to our portfolio strategies. Matt's Market Update is delivered quarterly via email and presented in a webinar that is free to attend.
