

Furloughed Employees

In the event that your organization is in the position that employees must be placed on furlough, it is generally acceptable to treat these situations as an unpaid leave of absence. Please speak with our account manager for additional details and to review the specific scenario as it impacts your plan.

---