

Meet Tom Siano

Tom Siano

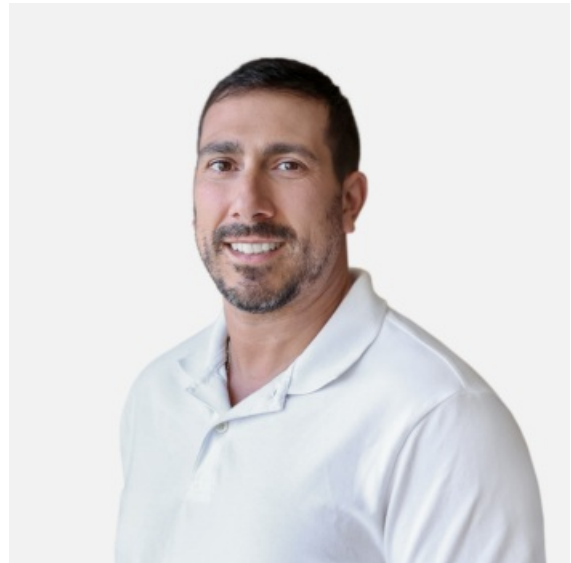

Director, Plan Consulting

About Me

Tom joined Sentinel in January 2008, previously working for Schloss & Co.

Tom's main job responsibilities include: providing quality service and building relationships with our clients; developing and coaching team members; and focusing on innovating our processes to improve efficiencies in how we operate and continually elevate the service provided to our clients.

Tom most enjoys the continuing changes and challenges of the industry. The internal and external questions and needs can change day-to-day and bring new ways of thinking or approaching a problem. Within Sentinel, Tom is a member of the Sentinel Cares Committee.

Educational Background & Experience

- Associates Degree –Computer Science
- Bachelor's Degree – Applied Mathematics
- Various industry credentials – CPC, QPA, QKA, QKC, TGPC

Out of the Office

Tom enjoys spending time with family and coaching his son's various sports teams. He also enjoys traveling or trying a new restaurant, fishing or being on or by the water (whether it's a lake or ocean).
